

RESERVED JUDGMENT REPORT FOR THE CHIEF JUSTICE

Reserved Judgments as at beginning of Term 1 of 2026

RESERVED JUDGMENT REPORT

1. Introduction

1.1 The Judicial norms and standards for the performance on judicial functions provide, in terms of paragraph 5.2.6, that judgments in both civil and criminal matters, should generally not be reserved without a fixed date for handing down. Judicial Officers have a choice to reserve judgments sine die where circumstances are such that the delivery of a judgment on a fixed date is not possible. The norms and standards further determine that save in exceptional cases where it is not possible to do so, every effort shall be made to hand down judgments no later than three (3) months after the last hearing.

1.2 Article 10(2) of the Code of Judicial Conduct adopted in terms of section 12 of the JSC Act, 1994 provides:

> "A judge must deliver all reserved judgments before the end of the term in which the hearing of a matter was completed, but may:
>
> (a) in respect of a matter that was heard within two weeks of the end of that term; or
> (b) where a reserved judgment is of a complex nature or for any other cogent and sound reason and with the consent of the head of the court, deliver that reserved judgment during the course of the next term."

1.3 At the meeting held on 28 September 2018, the Heads of Court resolved that a reserved judgments report containing a list of judgments outstanding for more than six months, will be published on the Judiciary's website.

2. Reserved Judgments overview during the reporting period

2.1 The 2026 Term 1 sittings of the Constitutional Court, the Supreme Court of Appeal and the Labour Appeals Court commenced on 15 February 2026, whereas the sittings for the High Court, Labour Courts and Land Court commenced from 19 January 2026. Table 1 below provides an overview of the status of reserved judgments as at the beginning of Term 1 of 2026.

2.2 As at the beginning of Term 1 of 2026, a total of 1,806 judgments were reported as reserved. A total of 398 of these judgments, representing an overall 22% of the reserved matters, had been reserved and were outstanding for a period exceeding six (6) months.

The remaining 1,408 of these judgments, representing an overall 78%, had been reserved for a period of less than six months. There was an increase of five percentage points (from 17% to 22%) of matters reserved for a period exceeding six (6) months compared with that recorded in Term 4 of 2025.

2.3 From table 1 below, it can be seen that nationally, out of a total of 1,806 judgments that were indicated as reserved, the Gauteng Division of the High Court, Pretoria with a total of 360 reserved matters, had the highest number of reserved judgments, followed by the Gauteng Division of the High Court, Johannesburg with 179, the Labour Court, Johannesburg with 165, the Free State Division of the High Court, Bloemfontein with 143, and the Western Cape Division, Cape Town with 122.

2.4 It is also noted that in terms of the total number of reserved judgments compared to the number of reserved judgments outstanding for more than six (6) months, both at 43% the North West Division, Mahikeng (40 out of 94) and the Labour Court, Cape Town (38 out of 88) had the highest proportion of judgments reserved for more than six months followed by the Labour Court, Johannesburg with 42% (68 out of 164), and the Northern Cape Division, Kimberly with 40% (19 out of 47).

2.5 Comparing the statistics of the Superior Courts, it will be noted that the highest percentage of reserved judgments, outstanding for more than six months, were in the Labour Court, Johannesburg with a percentage of 17% (67 out of 398 matters) followed by the Gauteng Division of the High Court, Pretoria with 15% (58 out of 398 matters), and the North West Division of the High Court with a percentage of 10% (40 out of 398 matters)

2.6 A noteworthy observation from the table below is that there were no judgments reserved for more than six (6) months, in the Labour Appeal Court and Eastern Cape Local Division, Gqeberha.

2.7 It is also worth noting that the Electoral Court and Competition Appeal Court did not have any reserved judgments.

2.8 Table 1 below provides a Superior Courts' status overview on the Reserved Judgments outstanding as at the beginning of Court Term 1 of 2026.
